FULL-STACK SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

mail: hypomicro@gmail.com | web: vezilka.dev | git: github.com/vezilka

PROFILE

I'm a software engineer who enjoys working at the intersection of development and design. I build modern websites and apps that provide intuitive user interfaces, while also being scalable and efficient under the hood. I've picked up quite a few skills during the course of my studies, and work to improve these skills everyday while constantly learning in this ever-changing field!
